

Education First
Frequently Asked Questions

What is Education First?

Education First is the Saint Stephen School fundraiser which pay for all enrichment programs including our Way of Beauty workshops, field trips, and other needs of the school not covered by tuition.

How does Education First raise money?

Our students seek support in the form of encouragement, prayer, and monetary donations from friends, family and neighbors.

Who participates?

Students, preschool through eighth grade and teachers participate.

Who writes and mails the letters?

To make the process simple, students with their parents, supply the list of five names and addresses. Volunteers at the school will mail the information to your student's contacts, providing paper, envelope and stamps.

When are the letters sent?

Letters will be mailed November 1.

What donation amount should be expected?

No minimum or maximum amount is expected.

How will my child know if one of their contacts made a donation?

We will share with your child if one of their contacts made a donation and we will take time to write personal thank you notes to each donor.
